1. There is forwarded herewith an untranslated (Italian) photocopy of a report which is submitted as an example of the type of unevaluated and undigested information which is probably piling up in Italian files, and on which future Italian foreign policy concerning Albania may be based, rather than for its intrinsic value. 2. The "fusion of parties" mentioned in enclosure, is to a certain extent promoted by BKI and by Ali KLISURAA's wing of Balli Kombetar. Their championship of this laudable objective, however, consists to a large extent of lip service. We fear that XXXXX BKI leaders (with the definite exception of (Captain) Gjon NAFHANOVI) and Ali KLISURAA would consider this an entirely satisfactory arrangement if they were admitted to full membership therein and were allowed to benefit of the concomitant financial and political kudos. Sincerest efforts at achieving fusion stems from Xhafer DEVA who takes the position that the position that the desired non-NCFA anti-Communist front must be built on purely economic foundations without regard to petty political prestige factors, must be an intense battle for foreign subsidy, and must operate on a basis of utmost secrecy entirely divorced from the usual coffee-house atmosphere of all previous and present undertakings. DEVA's last (and final) attempt in this direction has fallen through, a fact which, instead of embittering him, he takes merely as confirmation of his previously held views concerning "seriousness" of Old-Albania political leaders.
